Q: Please tell me what happened today?

A: I was walking around with my girl (Shayna) we were at Federal + Broadway. I wanted to be warm + mobile and I saw a Police car. The Police were on a stop - they had a car pulled over. SHAYNA kept on walking and I ran up and got in the driver seat. As soon as I got in I took off, the lights were already on, I think he ran in front of the car and I hit him and he rolled across the hood. I didn't want to hurt anyone. I turned around and I drove over to where SHAYNA was and I unlocked the door and she got in the car. I just drove and I heard the radio saying stuff about a stolen Police car and GPS and where the car is located. The plan was just to get a car - everything else was improv. As I drove I was at the Ben Franklin Bridge. The Police were chasing me and I crossed the toll part a cop took off after us. We pretty much got away they were told to stop chasing us. We rode around for maybe fifteen minutes. We went up on the sidewalk because traffic was not moving. When we went up on the sidewalk
